

STATEMENT OF ORIGINALITY

I, the undersigned,

Name : Ilham Anggah Pranata
Student ID : 202106087
Study Program : English Literature
University : Universitas Abdurachman Saleh Situbondo

hereby declare that the scientific work entitled Analysis of Presupposition in Elon Musk's Interview at Cannes Lions 2024 is entirely my own work. In the process of preparing this work, I employed artificial intelligence (AI) technology as a supporting tool. The use of this technology was carried out in compliance with academic ethics, without any act plagiarism, and with careful verification to ensure that all contents of the work were edited and adapted based on my understanding and personal analysis.

I further declare that:

1. This work is completely free from plagiarism, either in whole or in part;
2. All references and sources used have been acknowledged and cited following the principles of academic writing; and
3. The role of AI in this thesis was limited to auxiliary functions, including data processing, drafting assistance, and language refinement, without replacing the intellectual processes of critical thinking, analysis, and decision-making which were carried out entirely by myself.

Should any violation of this declaration be discovered in the future, I am fully prepared to accept the consequences under the prevailing regulations of Universitas Abdurachman Saleh Situbondo.

This declaration is made in good faith and with full responsibility for its accuracy and validity.

Situbondo, August 5, 2025

Declarant,

Ilham Anggah Pranata
